City. Illustration 13 presents the winning volleyball team together with stamps issued by the Ministry of Posts paying homage to the athletes, volleyball games, and Olympiads. A 40 haler stamp was issued on October 16th, 1963, honoring the XVIII Olympiad held in Tokyo, and the 60 haler stamp, issued on April 30th, 1968, paid tribute to the XIX Olympiad held in Mexico City.

Only the best of the world amateur soccer teams competes in the Olympiad Soccer Tournament. These are the winners of the 14 regional qualifying tournaments which are held all over the world months before the Olympiad Games. The 1964 Games found 64 national soccer teams competing—only the host country and the defending champion qualify automatically. A tribute was paid to soccer and the Olympiads held in Tokyo, 1964, and Mexico City, 1968, with the issuance of a 1 koruna stamp and a 1.60 koruna stamp, illustration 14.

Czechoslovak women gymnasts are among the world's finest. In Rome, 1960, they won a Gold and a Silver Medal. A 1.80 koruna stamp issued June 15th, 1960, honored their women gymnasts and the 1960 Olympiad held in Rome, illustration 15.

The youth and agility of Olga Korbut and Nadia Comaneci, who have been making and breaking records, are admired throughout the entire world, but who among us can forget the pride that we felt when, in the 1964 Tokyo Olympiad, Vera Caslavská received 3 Gold Medals and a Silver Team Award. She then went on to Mexico City, 1968, to become the first athlete to ever receive 4 individual Gold Medals in an Olympiad. Illustration 16 honors gymnasts and Vera Caslavská together with the XIX and XVIII Olympiads.

Illustration 17 are the stamps issued to honor the VII Winter Games held in Squaw Valley, 1960, and the X Winter Games held in Grenoble.

France, 1968, and the world renowned hockey teams have a long and colorful Olympic history. Their first success came in 1920 in Antwerp, when they captured a Bronze Medal for third place. Their supreme moment came in the 1968 when Czechoslovakia defeated Russia, who is in a class all by itself, but Russia went on to win the Gold Medal because of Czechoslovakia's later loss to Sweden. This resulted in a tie, Russia being declared the winner with the best overall score. The record of the Czechoslovak Ice Hockey Team follows:

1920—Bronze
1924—5th place
1936—4th place
1948—Silver
1952—4th place
1956—5th place

1960—4th place
1964—Bronze
1968—Silver
1972—Bronze
1976—Silver

The Winter Olympic Games became a separate entity in 1924. Prior to that year the Olympiad was divided into two parts. The Winter Sports of the Olympiad were held usually in February or March in the country hosting the Summer Games.

Times and traditions are changing. This year the XII Winter Games were held in Innsbruck and the XXI Olympiad in Montreal.

The sentiment that so many of us feel, when sporting events are held, is a special pride in our participants, teams and Our Country. We Americans, of Czechoslovak heritage are especially fortunate in that many of us also feel a special form of patriotism toward Czechoslovak participants and their teams, as they too are our people.

On behalf of the philatelists of the world, your Editor takes this opportunity to salute the individual athletes, teams and countries that supported and participated in the XII Winter Games and the XXI Olympiad.

From the President's Stock Book

Another fine European show, though on a far smaller scale, has taken place in ZNOJMO, Czechoslovakia between July 3 and July 18th. Though only a regional show, its catalogue contains much noteworthy literature as well as a lovely philatelic souvenir: a cachet envelope (60h definitive postal stationery issue with head of Ludvik Svoboda, H&G 24) bearing the show's postmark. The cachet design is devoted to the 750th anniversary of the founding of ZNOJMO. Inside the cover one finds a lovely Švengsbir engraving in black of the Rotunda of St. Catherine, one of Znojmo's historic landmarks.

The literary contents of the catalogue include numerous philatelic as well as non-philatelic articles, including a poem.

An article by Edward Buchta and Bohuslav Svoboda on the 185h orange Chainbreaker, perf. 14, supplements the plate and printing varieties published previously in Monografie II. František Žampach, a contributor to Monografie II, writes on the use of bisects of the first newspaper issue (falcon in flight) during the early years of the Czechoslovak Republic.

The popularity of Theresienstadt mail and history is reflected in an article by Valentin Schiebl entitled "Mail from Theresienstadt." Karel Fila writes concerning the history of the mail box—officially introduced in the Habsburg Empire just 150 years ago. Its inventor is, incidentally, a Czech named Václav Vlček of Vyrovce—not the "Austrian Wlczek," as claimed in some histories. Other articles deal with Znojmo commemorative post marks, rural post offices of the Znojmo region and other local topics.

The final philatelic article is by L. Benda and K. Fila and is entitled "Emergency Manufacture of Postage Stamps—and the Fate of the Czechoslovak Ship "LEDNICE" during the Suez Blockade 1967-1975."

The philatelic "fun and games" on the Great Bitter Lake received their impetus from the fact that the official status of the fourteen stranded ships did not conform to any applicable UPU regulations governing ships' mail. Apparently, the number of issues originating on the Great Bitter Lake rivals that of certain other entities in that part of the globe. Some 3000 sailors "used" some 900 "stamps" representing 200 "issues"!?

Other than the above, we find much of philatelic value in the "ZNOJMO '76" catalogue and hope to make a few copies available for sale shortly. Please watch for the announcement in "FOR SALE THROUGH THE SPECIALIST" in a future issue.

Editor's Gazette

Amphilex 77:

A cordial invitation has been extended to the members of our Society to participate and attend Amphilex-77, Amsterdam, Netherlands. The closing date for applying for a provisional application to exhibit at Amphilex-77 is November 1, 1976. Please write to the Secretariat, Amphilex-77, P. O. Box 777, Amsterdam, Holland or to Mr. Joe Frye, reportedly the U. S. Commissioner to Amphilex-77, P. O. Box 22308, Memphis, Tenn. May 26th through June 5th, 1977, are the dates of this the only philatelic world exhibition of the year, and will be held at the RAI in Amsterdam.

Hafnia 76:

I will prepare a resume of Hafnia-76, the exhibits, events and some of my impressions for our November Specialist.
